This class is for farmers & farm employees who need to renew their DL-267 endorsement or acquire an initial endorsement. The Butte County Farm Bureau is offering an Agricultural Hazardous Materials Transportation Program.

This class is for persons 21 years or older, who have a current California class C driver's license. Students will receive a DL-267 certificate that will enable them to legally transport hazardous agricultural materials on public roadways, (within a 50 mile radius) without a commercial driver's license. Class participants must have a valid and current California driver's license with them to participate in this class.

The credits earned in this class are valid for 4 years.

Heat Illness Prevention Training & Sexual Harassment Prevention Training February 6, 2019

$40 Per Person

Spanish: 8:00am – 12:00pm

English: 1:00pm – 5:00pm

Heat Illness Prevention Training - This workshop will investigate the fundamentals of a successful heat illness prevention plan, practices which lead to behavior change and application, and take a look at success stories from within the industry. It will also cover the most recent additions to the heat standard, including mandatory breaks for employees and the implications to wage and hour laws.

Sexual Harassment Prevention Training - This training meets the requirements of AB 1825 and AB 2053 which requires all supervisory employees to be trained in sexual harassment prevention for at least two hours every two years and annually for Farm Labor Contractor Supervisors. It will cover practical information and guidance regarding federal and state regulations, prevention, and correction remedies of sexual harassment in the workplace while covering the requirements of an anti-harassment and abusive conduct policy.
